

Just a quick ELVA Newsletter

This message is in addition to our normal Elva Newsletter as we wanted to tidy up the database and comment on a few points.

Some of you may be getting this newsletter for the first time because we've added all the contacts from the old forum. If you get this message and don't want to see more, just unsubscribe at the bottom and we won't bother you again.

The old ELVA Forum

The OLD Elva Forum has been replaced by the NEW Elva Forum since March 2010 and it seems appropriate to now remove the old version from the Elva website. However, there have been one or two suggestions that the old Forum postings should stay for 'historical' reasons, so your thoughts appreciated. Bear in mind that the old forum is not publicly viewable, unless you have one of the old logons still active.

The new ELVA Forum

If you previously registered for the old forum but not yet for the new, do please visit the current Forum and contribute your views, details of your Elva and perhaps add some images. Here's the link to the Elva Forum.

Next Newsletter

There is another Newsletter soon, so please consider sending me YOUR news so that this can be included in future mailings. You can reply to (or send a new email to) the email address that sent THIS newsletter. Please use the subject "Newsletter" so I can sift the important things from the spam.

Elva Register

The questions regarding an active Register of cars/owners continue, but it appears that a relatively small number of owners are enthusiastic about taking part. This is a shame. Do find time to go to the website and contribute via the Forum so that a more complete picture can be painted of the cars that currently exist - whether road, race, stored or wrecked! Thank you.

I look forward to hearing from you ...
